

Children's Sunday School

at St. Peter's by-the-Sea

Every Sunday we offer Christian education to children of all ages. We take this role seriously because we see it as a sacred duty to pass on our life-giving faith to the next generation, and help them know and follow Jesus. Sunday School curriculum are designed to help children learn the stories of Scripture and our Episcopal tradition, but there's no memorization or stuffy lessons. There are stories, games, music, and crafts to engage the kids and help create a fun, nurturing atmosphere. Won't you help your child grow up knowing and loving God?

St. Peter's Nursery

directed by Heather Wall

The Nursery offers a safe and loving environment for infants and toddlers. The St. Peter's Nursery is located adjacent the Parish Administrator's Office in Ruffino Hall.

Pre-K and Kindergarten

taught by Katy Tetreault and Terri Shaw

This class is hands-on! Children will play, sing, and create simple crafts. The Bible stories are told interactively, to help the come alive. Meets in the front room of the St. Peter's Pre-School Building.

1st - 3rd Grades

taught by Sue Bush and Jess Reitzel.

This class engages the Bible through art, drama, and activities that connect with real life concerns. Meets in the back room of the St. Peter's Pre-School Building.

4th and 5th Grades

taught by John Shaw and John Menzies

Kids in this class will enter the Bible through imagination, while working to connect with real life issues. Special emphasis is placed on connecting the kids to issues of justice and fairness. Meets in the Ground Floor rooms of Ruffino Hall.
